Sanitary Pantry Floors

Armstrong's Linoleum on the pantry floor keeps it sweet and clean.

Has no cracks for crumbs to creep in. No danger of slipping when you are in a hurry. Seldom needs scrubbing. A minute with the mop and it is as fresh and clean as new.

Armstrong's Linoleum

wears better because it is made better. All materials are carefully selected and tested and every inch is inspected before it leaves the factory. Costs less than other kinds because it lasts longer.

YOU'RE BILIOUS!
CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS TONIGHT

Don't Stay Headachy, Sick, or Have Bad Breath and Sour Stomach

Wake Up Feeling Fine! Best Laxative for Men, Women and Children

Enjoy life! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive, and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarets from the drug store and eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarets never gripe or sicken like salts, pills and calomel. They act so gently that you hardly realize you have taken a cathartic. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious or feverish children a whole Cascaret any time—they act thoroughly and are harmless.—Adv.

YOUNG HAWAIIAN BOY
GETS YEAR AND HALF
IN PRISON FOR THEFT

Harold Lewis, a part-Hawaiian, claiming he is only 16 years old, was sentenced to not less than 18 months at hard labor in Oahu prison by Circuit Judge Ashford today. Lewis pleaded guilty to a charge of second degree burglary. He confessed having entered the shop of a Japanese named Namura and stolen a plumber's furnace and a quantity of lead valued at $12. He also confessed the commission of several other crimes, one being the stealing and selling of his mother's chickens.

SYDNEY WOMAN,
GRIEF STRICKEN,
SEEKS HUSBAND

Wife of Donald McDonald Asks Governor to Help Find Him in Honolulu

Declaring that her husband has deserted her and come to Honolulu from their Australian home, Mrs. Mary McDonald of Sydney has written to Governor Pinkham for help.

Mrs. McDonald says that her husband, Donald McDonald, left home on the July trip of the Niagara. She describes him as of slight build, dark complexioned and good looking. He has blue eyes, is fond of gay life and likes singing.

"I am in terrible distress," Mrs. McDonald declares in her letters, two of which have been received at the governor's office.

The woman states that she had been married to McDonald little more than half a year. She has barely enough to keep going and is depending on friends for help. She says that she is completely broken down in health as a result of her grief. McDonald, according to her letters, was employed in the sanitary department of the Hilo Railroad Company in 1913. Her address is George street, North Post Office, Sydney, Australia.

NOVEL WESTERN
STORY IS FILMED

"Bill Peter's Kid," a novel story dealing with rugged western life, by Russell Sturgeon, comes to the Empire Theater today and it gives ample scope for a display of the dramatic abilities of Miss Mary Anderson, who has a leading part in this production. The play, filmed in three parts, bears close relation to the favorite Broadway star feature attraction which recently closed a successful run on the mainland. William Duncan, Frederick Bradley and Winnifred Melton are included in the cast. Beginning as a quaint comedy with a delightful romance, the story gradually develops into a stirring drama which reaches a tremendous climactic degree of power in the rescue of Nesta, the girl, cleverly impersonated by Miss Anderson. Interest in the thrilling adventures of Marguerite which have been shown on the screen increase with each new episode. Today, the brave little heroine of many half-raising exploits is seen in a novel one-act drama. "Crossed Clues" deals with crooks and the criminal class in an entirely unique manner. Marguerite Courtot is the particular star in the play.

Little "Bud" Duncan returns to the Empire in a roaring farce-comedy.

GOVERNOR KNEW
THAYER THOUGHT
OF RESIGNATION

Administration Was Peaceful at All Times, Though, He Emphasizes

Though Wade Warren Thayer, secretary of the territory, declines to commit himself on a report that he will resign at the end of the year, Governor Pinkham was informed some days ago of the secretary's intentions.

Both Thayer and the governor were questioned this morning on the matter. Both denied that there has ever been or is any friction between them.

"I have not resigned and I don't know when I shall do so," said Thayer briefly this morning. "I wish to state, however, that there has never been any trouble between the governor and myself. We are on the most friendly terms."

"I was informed a few days ago that the secretary was contemplating resignation," said Governor Pinkham. "As he had not decided definitely on the subject there is and was nothing to say on it, and I have said nothing to anyone about it."

"As for friction between us, there is none. The entire administration—inside the family—has been peaceful."

"Why does Mr. Thayer refuse to make any statement which would settle the matter?" the governor was asked.

"I don't know. I can't answer what I don't know."

Neither do other territorial officials know the reason for Thayer's reticence. They say beyond a doubt he intends to hand in his resignation and do not understand why he should be so coy in regard to publication of the fact.

A Vote for a Democratic Candidate is a
Vote for Free Sugar

The National Democratic Party is flatly in favor of placing sugar on the free list as soon as possible.

The local Democratic Party is silent on subject.

The National Republican Party is flatly in favor of a PROTECTIVE Duty on Sugar.

The local Republican Party is emphatic also.

It follows that every vote in Hawaii cast in favor of a Democratic legislature will be cited in Congress as showing that Hawaii believes in free sugar.

What does the Hawaiian Democracy say about this?
